The Companion Calendar

For 1891.

This beautiful and unique Calendar and Almanac is called "The Book of Days." It has features that fully justify its name, the design being based from early New Testament printed by the Press of the University of Cambridge. It is provided with a full and complete calendar of the year. It is printed on the best of materials and is a valuable addition to the library of every home.

Offer to New Subscribers.

This Calendar will be sent to each New Subscriber who will, in return, send us the amount of the subscription, $1.25 per year, in advance. The Year's Companion will be mailed from the time that the subscription is received in January. FULL PAGE, and after a full year from that date. No other money given to be kept in waiting of establishing weekly or to be a paper.

Christmas Money

By PRUDENCE PARSONS.

An Illustrated Story for people who "can't afford to spend much money this year for Christmas Presents."

NELLIE DALE could not afford to spend what little money she possessed, but she was wise enough to find a way to secure, without cost of money, a large list of valuable presents.
